

Farmington Ridge

Farmington, Connecticut · From the high $800s

The details are where it shows.

You can feel the difference in a home the moment you walk in, long before anyone explains it. Farmington Ridge is built for people who notice. Gourmet kitchens, spa-inspired primary baths, and finishes that were chosen with care, not by default. This is Connecticut living with nothing cut short.

A walkable setting close to dining, shopping, and trails, with strong local public schools and an easy connection to Hartford. It is the kind of place where a Saturday can be a long walk and a good meal, and a weekday still gets you where you need to be.

The Homes

Open-concept homes from 2,200 to 3,200 square feet, from the high $800s. Energy-smart certified construction, backed by a five-year warranty, so the quality you see is matched by the quality you do not. Featured plans are The Sterling and The Hudson.

WHY FAMILIES CHOOSE IT

- Gourmet kitchens and spa-inspired primary baths
- Energy-smart certified construction with a five-year warranty
- Walkable to dining, shopping, and trails, with strong schools and easy Hartford access
